2) Para 8 of note in file no Mul 117-19-G.S

It is a point for consideration whether the Mul Co may not be allowed to sanction applications for transfer of funds from one major head to another as well without reference to Govt provided that there is no excess over the total budget grant as sanctioned by Govt and that lump grant allowed for specific purpose can not thus be diverted without sanction of Govt

Such a delegation will not be inconsistent with the Rule contained in Section 16(3) of Mul Regn (E) (Fin Secy) Intd. 7/6/1920

I agree Intd. 12/6/1920

The question of allowing municipal Councils to transfer funds from one major head to another without reference to Govt and without exceeding the budget grant was considered in Mul file no 128-14 the draft put up in that file is in accordance with the principle enunciated in the Govt order of 11th Nov 1918 the grant of these powers is intended to decentralize the powers now vesting in Govt and the municipal Comrs will be at liberty to use the funds at their disposal as best they can, subject to certain restrictions imposed by them by the Govt

The draft in that file requires slight alterations.

The authority to issue addenda & corrigenda to the Rel Fleet manual now vests in the Revenue Secretary

An addenda slip has issued to rule 18 of the Rel Fleet manual This will be slightly amended

A draft addenda & corrigenda is submitted for approval
